

Our aim is to minister to ministers so that they may be refreshed spiritually, stimulated theologically and pastorally, and encouraged in the great task of preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ. To this end we offer biblical exposition to feed the mind and fire the heart, preaching workshops to help sharpen ourselves as 'approved workmen' of the Word, and addresses on key issues at the cutting edge of ministry.

Our fundamental conviction is that when the Bible is taught God's voice is heard. The main aim of the conference, therefore, is to teach the Bible to teachers in order that they in turn can teach it to others. A further aim is to provide a fellowship of like-minded evangelicals across denominational lines for encouragement in an exacting work.

IRISH PREACHERS
CONFERENCE
2012

Theme:

"The Message of Joshua
for today:
Preaching Old Testament Narrative"

Speaker: David Jackman

Mon 9th – Wed 11th January
The Royal Hotel
Bray
Co Wicklow

Programme

- Bible exposition and ministry addresses to feed on God's Word together
- Preaching workshops to learn together and help one another 'rightly handle the Word of Truth'.
- Prayer together for one another in our ministries
- Fellowship and relaxation together, with time off to enjoy the surrounding area

Preaching Workshops

These are a central feature of preaching conferences: we work together in small groups on a book or theme with a small number of others under the leadership of an experienced preacher. The goal is to help one another in our handling and communication of the Bible's message.

Each workshop will meet three times, and will involve some preparation before the conference: details of this will be sent about a month in advance.

Stream 1 - David Jackman for newcomers

Stream 2 - Eddie Coulter on Matthew 5-7

Stream 3 - Ferran Glenfield on 1 Kings (Ahab/Elijah)

Stream 4 - Chris Kennedy on James

Stream 5 - David Martin on the Life of Abraham

Stream 6 - David Montgomery on Micah

Stream 7 - Jonathan Reid on Mark 1-8

Stream 8 - John Samuel on Isaiah 1-12

Please indicate 1st & 2nd preference on the registration form.

We do our best to fit you into the group of your choice, but will allocate on a first come, first served basis.

Speakers & Workshop Leaders

David Jackman, our main speaker, was founding Director of the Cornhill Training Course in London, a training course with the primary aim of training preachers. Prior to that he was senior minister of Above Bar Church, Southampton. He is married to Heather with two married children. He is author of many books, most recently Opening up the Bible & Spirit of Truth.

Eddie Coulter is superintendent of the Irish Church Mission in Dublin and an Anglican minister.

Ferran Glenfield is rector of Kill O' The Grange Church of Ireland parish in South County Dublin.

Chris Kennedy is minister of Dun Laoghaire Presbyterian Church.

David Martin is leader of Emmanuel Church in central Dublin.

David Montgomery is minister of Greystones Presbyterian Church, Co Wicklow.

Jonathan Reid is pastor of Calvary Church, Wexford.

John Samuel is pastor of Grosvenor Road Baptist Church in Dublin.

Is it for Me?

This conference is intended for those with a regular Bible preaching ministry in the Republic of Ireland. It affords an opportunity to be ministered to as well as to work hard together on the task of preaching the Bible. None of us can 'go it alone', and fellowship with others across the denominations who share in the struggles of authentic, biblical ministry can be a vital source of strength and encouragement. So, if that is you, we welcome you to join us.

Venue & Cost

- The conference is residential and will be held in The Royal Hotel, Bray, Co. Wicklow from 2pm on Mon 9th until after lunch on Wed 11th January 2011.
- The cost is €190 Euro and is inclusive of all meals and accommodation. There is an early booking fee of €175 up to 30 November.
- We are keen for participants to be there for the whole conference. However, we are offering a non-residential rate of €135 for those who do not require overnight accommodation.
- If you need financial help, please do not hesitate to ask. Just pay what you can afford.
